King Street Productions is the resident, not-for-profit, production company at the Royal Theatre Thousand Islands, in Gananoque, Ontario.

The mandate of King Street Productions is to promote and develop independent and emerging talent in the fields of Theatre, Dance, and Music.

King Street Productions works in cooperation with Artists who are essentially producing their own works, but who will benefit from the resources and support our organization has to offer.

Anyone may propose their own production for consideration in upcoming seasons. Selections will be made at the discretion of the Artistic Direction Team.

All Charitable tax receipts will be processed through King Street Productions, while KSP is awaiting Federal Charitable status we will be issuing Receipts through our partner The Montreal West Operatic Society
