

Join The Royal Family

The Royal Theatre Thousand Islands welcomes all volunteers. Each person plays an important part in our productions. Experienced or new to theatre, there are always positions for volunteers in staging a play that are fun, provide a sense of accomplishment, and introduce you to a new group of friends. Training is provided as required.

Actor's - Stage Management - Stage Crew - Front of House - Publicity - Make-up & Hair
- Costumes - Props and Set Construction - Ticket Sales - Programme - Security -
Photography -

The Royal Theatre Thousand Islands is an exciting addition to the performing arts landscape of Eastern Ontario. Founded and federally registered in 2013, this intimate theatre is located on downtown King Street in picturesque Gananoque, Ontario.

The Royal Theatre Thousand Islands looks forward to sharing new performance offerings with patrons of the Eastern Ontario region.

We are united by our desire to provide a home for independent and emerging talent in the fields of Theatre, Dance, and Music.